BUSBY, Bill

Becoming a councillor is all about listening to people of all ages within the Bassendean community and working collaboratively with Council to bring about sustainable outcomes.

Through effective leadership, I want to focus on building community by developing and maintaining recreational facilities that encourage family involvement.

I believe active community groups, sport and passive recreation strengthens communities and brings people together to overcome loneliness, build relationships and develop a sense of belonging within the Bassendean community.

I have 30 years experience managing a successful business which enables me to contribute to council planning and responsible budgeting.

I commit to acting on behalf of the Bassendean community with a strong social conscience.
