Definitions - Nature of Interest

Direct pecuniary interest means a person's interest in a development application where it is reasonable to expect that the application, if dealt with by a DAP, will result in a financial gain, loss, benefit or detriment for the person.

Impartiality interest means an interest that could, or could reasonably be perceived to, adversely affect the impartiality of a member with such an interest and includes an interest which arises from kinship, friendship, partnership or membership of an association, that is connected to a development application that is before the relevant DAP or which may come before that DAP in future.

Indirect pecuniary interest means a person's interest in a development application where a financial relationship exists between that person and the applicant.

Proximity interest, in relation to a DAP member, means an interest of the member, or a close associate of the member, in a development application if the application concerns land adjoining the person's land.
